

in advancing the retirement security of the American people. Our Nation has lost a valuable ally in the critical struggle to achieve economic security for our Nation's retirees.

Fortunately for our Nation, however, Director Slate's 4 years of success at the PBGC were not a temporary foray into government service but the capstone of a lifelong career of service to the public. Prior to coming to the PBGC, Mr. Slate oversaw employee benefit plans for the Internal Revenue Service and served in a variety of capacities at the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Marty's lifelong dedication to ensuring equal opportunity and preserving workplace benefit security brought tangible results to millions of working Americans. His life stands as a testament to the fact that one can achieve great good in service to one's country.

Mr. Speaker, this past Thursday I attended a memorial service for Director Slate. While this required me to miss several recorded votes here in the House, I was proud to count myself among the hundreds of colleagues and friends who gathered to pay tribute to this exceptional man. Speaker after speaker rose to celebrate the life and mourn the passing of this quintessential public servant and vibrant friend. For those of us who had known him only professionally, we learned in moving terms that Marty's dedication to his country was matched by dedication to his friends and family. Country, colleagues, family, friends—all will miss him terribly.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues in this Chamber to join me in sending heartfelt condolences to Marty's wife, Dr. Caroline Poplin, and to the other members of Marty's family. At this difficult time, I know that we all join in expressing our sincere gratitude for Marty's many years of dedicated service to this Nation and his fellow citizens.

DECERTIFYING MEXICO

HON. BENJAMIN A. GILMAN

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 11, 1997

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to insert into the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD a letter to President Clinton from Grant Woods, attorney general from the State of Arizona; and Daniel E. Lungren, attorney general from the State of California. I call our colleagues' attention to the important message conveyed in this letter from two leaders on the frontlines in the struggle against illegal drugs.

Their message is clear: United States law enforcement resources have been compromised by corruption among their counterparts in Mexico. They call upon this Congress to decertify Mexico.

Mr. Speaker, in consultation with our colleagues, we will present legislation on Thursday that will decertify Mexico and send a bipartisan message to President Clinton and to the Mexican Government on steps that should be taken to stem the flow of drugs into the United States from Mexico.

I commend our friends from California and Arizona and urge my colleagues to study the wise counsel conveyed in their letter.

STATE OF ARIZONA,
OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL,
Washington, DC, February 27, 1997.
Hon. BILL CLINTON,
Office of The President of the United States,
The White House, Washington, DC.

DEAR PRESIDENT CLINTON: As the chief law and law enforcement officers of our respective States, we are gravely concerned with recent reports that our cooperative efforts with law enforcement officials of the Republic of Mexico in the fight against illegal drugs may have been seriously compromised. This is intolerable. It threatens the integrity of our own enforcement efforts in our respective States, States which border Mexico and which are heavily impacted by the devastating cross-border illegal drug trade. Frankly, we are concerned about the consequences to state and national drug enforcement personnel, programs, strategies, data, equipment and criminal intelligence sources.

Accordingly, we urge you to take the appropriate action under sections 489 and 490 of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to decertify the Republic of Mexico as a country "fully cooperating" with the United States to end drug production, trafficking and related activities. While this step appears to be drastic, we are unaware of any credible alternative means of impressing upon the appropriate agencies of national authority in Mexico the seriousness of these breaches of security. We cannot continue to cooperate in sensitive operations fighting drugs under these circumstances.

Sincerely,

GRANT WOODS,
Attorney General,
State of Arizona.

DANIEL E. LUNGREN,
Attorney General,
State of California.

HONORING BILL HARDMAN, SR.,
FOR HIS SERVICE TO THE STATE OF TENNESSEE AND OTHER
SOUTHEAST STATES IN THE
AREA OF TOURISM

HON. BOB CLEMENT

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 11, 1997

Mr. CLEMENT. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in honor of Mr. Bill Hardman, Sr., and his service to the State of Tennessee and other Southeast States in the area of tourism.

Mr. Hardman, who has served as the president and CEO of the Southeast Tourism Society [STS] since its inception in 1983, is relinquishing his duties on March 15, 1997. He will be greatly missed.

Mr. Hardman is a legend in the tourism industry. He began his career in 1959 when he became Georgia's first tourism director, a position he held for 12 years. One of Mr. Hardman's first projects was to construct welcome centers at Georgia's State borders. The State was the first in the Southeast other than Florida to form a welcome center program. Before he left, he had planned and coordinated eight welcome centers. Following his successful program, other Southeastern States began constructing welcome centers and today, all Southeastern States have strong welcome center programs.

Mr. Hardman instituted the first Governor's Conference on Tourism in the United States in Georgia and other States followed. In 1965, he created and served as the first president for the Southern Travel Directors Council, which later became known as Travel South USA. He developed a high impact advertising program in television, radio, and newspaper and attended trade shows for the State of Georgia all over America and Europe.

Mr. Hardman was involved in Presidential Inaugurations and entered Georgia floats in the Kennedy, Johnson, and Nixon inaugurations. He was instrumental in obtaining favorable legislation for tourism in Georgia. For several years, he had Georgia floats in the tournament of Roses Parade. He won a number of awards including the Sweepstakes Award. Hardman organized the Jimmy Carter Inaugural Special train to Washington for the inauguration of his home State President Jimmy Carter. The special train sold out in 2 days and several cars on the regular train from Atlanta to Washington were sold to the Jimmy Carter group.

Mr. Hardman left his State of Georgia employment in 1971 to go into his own business, a travel agency, travel advertising and promotion accounts, attraction development, trade show management and other areas of the tourism industry. In 1983, he got the idea for a regional travel organization. In September 1983, 21 people from 7 Southeastern States met in Atlanta to determine if there was a need for such an organization. The result was the formation of the Southeast Tourism Society, which currently has a membership of 450 people representing 10 Southeastern States. STS is the strongest regional travel organization in the nation. The purpose of STS is to market and develop tourism and travel to and within the Southeastern States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Virginia.

Mr. Hardman currently serves on the White House Conference Travel and Safety Committee. He has won numerous awards including the coveted Travel Industry Association of American Knight of the Golden Horseshoe Award in 1973.

Mr. Hardman's organizational and people skills have been the key to 10 States working together as though there are no State borders and working for the good of the region as a whole. The Southeast States enjoy an abundance of tourism, due, in part, to the efforts of Mr. Hardman. He is a good friend, not only to the States represented by STS, but also to me personally. Tennessee has been served well by his many successes. But, I don't expect him to sit idly by, so I hope we will be hearing from him often. Mr. Hardman will certainly be missed in his position at STS. I wish him the best of luck.
